Augmentation of stipend.	Extract from a letter from the Court of Directors, dated 4th September 1811.—With reference to correspondence of 1808 and 1809 the Court of Directors sanctions the increase of the Royal stipend to 12 lakhs per annum. The Court approves of the instructions issued by the Government of India to the Resident at Delhi to convey to His Majesty a full and candid exposition of the real nature of his situation and of his relations to the British power, with the view of permanently repressing those pretentions which His Majesty had unadvisedly brought forward. The court also approves of the removal of the Guard of Honour attending Mirza Jehangir, His Majesty's third son, and of the measures taken for the suppression of other irregularities in the conduct of that Prince. The action of the Governor-General in informing His Majesty the King that the British Government will not recognize any one but His Majesty's eldest son as heir-apparent is approved, as also are the arrangements made for preventing peculations among some of the officers of the Royal household and for a fair division of the augmented stipend. The Agent, Delhi, forwards an extract from the correspondence of 1809 showing the grounds on which compensation for Bhiwani was fixed at Rs. 6,000 and approves of the proposal to add to our management such of the Dadri villages as intercept the various roads of traffic from Bhiwani. And in a later communication the Agent forwards a report from the Deputy Collector of Rohtak, together with a sketch map, showing the several roads from Bhiwani through Dadri villages. (O.) The papers of 1809 obtained by the Government, N.-W. Case 21
1	25th March 1828.	Resdt., Delhi (Sir E. Colebrooke).	Chief Secy. to Govt., Fort William.	Disputed claims to Loharu Jagir.	The Resident, Delhi, submits proceedings in a dispute between the sons of the late Nawab Ahmad Bakhsh Khan of Firozpur, principally with reference to the pargana of Loharu, which is held in jagir from the Alwar State, the grant being in the name of the eldest son Shams-ud-din Khan, who was required by his father to execute a deed ceding it to his brothers Amin-ud-din Khan and Zia-ud-din Khan. These two brothers allege that a monthly stipend was also provided by the deed, which is not now forthcoming. The Resident is of opinion that in the absence of the deed all that Shams-ud-din Khan can be required to do is to make over Pargana Loharu to his brothers, and proposes arbitration. (O.) The award is considered fair, but the arrangement which confers Pargana Loharu on Mirza Amin-ud-din Khan and his brother, to be divided in equal shares, is considered objectionable. It is considered preferable that Shams-ud-din Khan should keep the pargana and make his brothers an allowance. The adoption of this arrangement is suggested if practicable. (C.)
